

Dayton Physicians Network Man and Woman of the Year

Dayton Physicians Network has a candidate in the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's (LLS) Man and Woman of the Year fundraiser. Mark Marinella, MD, and his MOTY team recently held an event on April 12 at the Wine Gallery, which included wine tastings, gourmet cuisine, live and silent auctions that featured artwork by Mike Elsass, vintage posters, jewelry, vacations, donation baskets and more.

1. Local 2015 MOTY candidate, Mark Marinella, MD, with his fiancée and team manager, Lana Tobin. 2. Auctioneer Doug Sorrell reads aloud the sale description of an autographed guitar, signed by KC of KC and the Sunshine Band.

Bidders hold up numbers signifying their interest in the sale.

Bidders watch a silent auction during wine tastings and food parings.

A bidder holds up a number during the auction.

Partner in Educational Child Car

1

2

A Special Wish Superhero Donut Run

Over 550 runners came out for the A Special Wish Superhero Donut Run on April 18 in Centerville. A Special Wish partnered with Bill's Donut Shop for the 5K, and with Primrose Schools of Centerville and Yankee for the Fun Run. Attendees dressed up in superhero costumes that were judged by City of Centerville Mayor Mark Kingseed, City Manager Greg Horn and members of Super Heroes Closet, a nonprofit that collects items for families in need.

PHOTOS BY CLOTHIER PHOTOGRAPHY

3

4

5

1. Primrose Schools of Centerville were a partner for A Special Wish Superhero Donut Run. 2. Participants in the run wore fun costumes like the Ninja Turtles for the race. 3. Superheroes unite for a photo at the Superhero Donut Run. 4. Jacob Kurtz won the Fun Run wearing his Thor costume. 5. Dressing up as different superheroes was encouraged.

Dayton Physicians Network Man and Woman of the Year

Dayton Physicians Network has a candidate in the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's (LLS) Man and Woman of the Year fundraiser. Mark Marinella, MD, and his MOTY team recently held an event on April 12 at the Wine Gallery, which included wine tastings, gourmet cuisine, live and silent auctions that featured artwork by Mike Elsass, vintage posters, jewelry, vacations, donation baskets and more.

1. Local 2015 MOTY candidate, Mark Marinella, MD, with his fiancée and team manager, Lana Tobin. 2. Auctioneer Doug Sorrell reads aloud the sale description of an autographed guitar, signed by KC of KC and the Sunshine Band.

Bidders hold up numbers signifying their interest in the sale.

Bidders watch a silent auction during wine tastings and food pairings.

A bidder holds up a number during the auction.

Partner in Educational Child Car

1.

2.

A Special Wish Superhero Donut Run

Over 550 runners came out for the A Special Wish Superhero Donut Run on April 18 in Centerville. A Special Wish partnered with Bill's Donut Shop for the 5K, and with Primrose Schools of Centerville and Yankee for the Fun Run. Attendees dressed up in superhero costumes that were judged by City of Centerville Mayor Mark Kingseed, City Manager Greg Horn and members of Super Heroes Closet, a nonprofit that collects items for families in need.

PHOTOS BY CLOTHIER PHOTOGRAPHY

3.

4.

5.

1. Primrose Schools of Centerville were a partner for A Special Wish Superhero Donut Run. 2. Participants in the run wore fun costumes like the Ninja Turtles for the race. 3. Superheroes unite for a photo at the Superhero Donut Run. 4. Jacob Kurtz won the Fun Run wearing his Thor costume. 5. Dressing up as different superheroes was encouraged.